

Delegation: _____

Session: _____

Instructions: Please assign an appropriate score in each category based on the delegation's performance. Ensure all category scores are totaled to determine the final overall score.

	10-8	7-4	3-1
Research and Knowledge	Demonstrates a deep understanding of the assigned country's position on the topics and shows comprehensive research on relevant international agreements, historical context, and current events.	Demonstrates a good understanding of the assigned country's position on the topics and shows comprehensive research on some relevant international agreements, historical context, and current events.	Understands the assigned country's position on the topics but has limited knowledge on relevant international agreements, historical context, and current events.
Public Speaking and Communication	Clearly articulates points during speeches, addressing both the committee and other delegations and engages in constructive dialogue, actively participating in moderated and simple caucuses.	Articulates with some hesitation points during speeches, addressing both the committee and other delegations and participates in productive dialogue, occasionally participating in moderated and simple caucuses.	Articulates with difficulty some points during speeches, and sometimes, participates in moderated and simple caucuses.
Diplomacy and Negotiation	Collaborates effectively with other delegations to form alliances or draft resolutions. Displays diplomatic skills in resolving conflicts and finding compromises.	Demonstrates a moderate ability to communicate persuasively, considering various perspectives, and making reasonable compromises. Manages conflicts,	Exhibits limited communication skills, struggles when considering different viewpoints, and finds challenges in reaching compromises. There is a need for improvement in managing conflicts and engaging in effective negotiation but still has room for improvement in navigating complex negotiations.	strategies.

Procedural Knowledge	Demonstrates a solid understanding of the committee's rules and procedures. Effectively utilizes procedural tools such as motions and points of order.	There is a satisfactory understanding and application of procedures. Demonstrates a moderate level of competency in executing established processes, with occasional need for reference or guidance. There is room for improvement, but the basics are reasonably grasped.	Exhibits limited understanding and application of procedures. It might require frequent guidance or reference to perform tasks correctly. There is a clear need for improvement in grasping and executing basic procedures.
Resolution Drafting	Contributes meaningfully to the creation of well-structured and realistic resolutions. Incorporates feedback from other delegations to improve the quality of draft resolutions.	Produces resolutions with a satisfactory level of clarity, coherence, and relevance. Demonstrates a moderate ability to articulate ideas and propose solutions, though there may be some room for improvement in refining language and addressing potential ambiguities.	Struggles to produce clear and well-structured resolutions. There could be challenges in articulating ideas effectively, resulting in potential ambiguities. Improvement is needed in organizing thoughts and expressing them coherently in the context of resolution drafting.
Adaptability and Flexibility	Adapts to unexpected developments or changes in the committee's direction. Responds well to criticism and adjusts strategies accordingly.	Demonstrates a satisfactory ability to adapt to changes and navigate unforeseen challenges. Shows a moderate level of flexibility in adjusting to new situations, though there may be occasional hesitation or a need for additional support in certain circumstances.	Struggles to adapt to changes and exhibit limited flexibility in unfamiliar situations. It might find it challenging to adjust to unexpected circumstances without significant support or guidance. There is a clear need for improvement in developing adaptability skills.

Time Management	Balances participation throughout the sessions, avoiding monopolizing the floor. Manages time effectively during speeches and negotiations.	Demonstrates a satisfactory ability to prioritize tasks, meet deadlines, and allocate time effectively. There is a moderate level of organization in managing workloads, but occasional adjustments may be needed to optimize efficiency and ensure timely completion of responsibilities.	The delegation struggles with prioritization, meeting deadlines, and organizing tasks efficiently. There is a need for improvement in developing fundamental time management skills, as the delegation may encounter challenges in completing responsibilities within specified timeframes.
Professionalism	Behaves respectfully towards other delegates, adhering to diplomatic decorum. Maintains a professional demeanor even under pressure.	Demonstrates a satisfactory level of professionalism, adhering to workplace norms and expectations. Exhibits a moderate understanding of appropriate conduct, effective communication, and respect for colleagues. There may be occasional areas for improvement in consistently maintaining a high standard of professional behavior.	Display limited adherence to workplace norms and expectations. There might be challenges in maintaining consistent and appropriate conduct, effective communication, and respectful interactions with colleagues. Improvement is needed in developing fundamental professionalism skills.
Critical Thinking	The delegation consistently demonstrates exceptional skills in analyzing complex information, evaluating arguments in depth, and making well-informed, strategic decisions. Exhibits a high level of logical reasoning, creativity, and the ability to apply critical thinking across diverse and challenging scenarios.	Demonstrates a satisfactory ability to analyze information, evaluate arguments, and make informed decisions. Shows a moderate capacity for logical reasoning and problem-solving, although there may be occasional gaps in connecting complex ideas or applying critical thinking consistently across various contexts.	The delegation may struggle with analyzing information, evaluating arguments, and making sound decisions. There is a need for improvement in developing fundamental skills related to logical reasoning and problem-solving. Consistent application of critical thinking principles may be limited at this stage.

Teamwork	Collaborates with fellow delegation members, ensuring a cohesive and coordinated approach. Shares responsibilities and supports each other's contributions.	The delegation collaborates effectively within a team, contributing adequately to group goals. Demonstrates a moderate understanding of team dynamics, communication, and cooperation. While generally cooperative, there may be occasional areas for improvement in terms of actively fostering a collaborative environment and addressing challenges within the team.	The delegation may struggle to effectively contribute to group goals and collaborate within a team. There could be challenges in understanding team dynamics, communication, and cooperation. Improvement is needed in developing fundamental teamwork skills to enhance collaborative efforts.
-----------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Total score _____

Observations:
